

The J. Bonner Ritchie Dialogue on Peace and Justice

Women, War and Peacebuilding

UVU Conference 2016

“They come broken, frail and disgraced.

They come with no dignity

as they have no self-reliance capabilities.

They come isolated, afraid and timid to start a fresh in this new land.

UHHR, a trauma haven comes in handy; welcomes, rehabilitates, provides therapy and many more endlessly facilities

till refugees and asylees become calm, gain self-control and learn to face life again.”

-Excerpt from a poem of an anonymous client of Utah Health and Human Rights (UNNHR)

Come and learn what you can do to support refugees in their journey to peace.

March 24 at 5:00 p.m. UVU Classroom Building, Room #101B

Dr. Mara Rabin, Medical Director for the Utah
Health and Human Rights

Nyandeng Aleu, Sudanese Refugee

Sponsored by

 UVU Peace and Justice Conference 2016

 peaceandjusticeconference.org

 wwp2016pjst@gmail.com

PEACE AND JUSTICE STUDIES